Cailee J. Alderman represents clients in all aspects of family and matrimonial law, with a focus on divorce, child custody, child support, adoption, guardianship and special immigrant juvenile status.

Cailee is a long-serving advocate for children and families involved in life's difficult phases. As such, she understands family law cases require compassion and commitment and is determined to provide solutions that work for each individual case.

As a child, Cailee witnessed first-hand the challenges children face when navigating their parent's divorce. From that experience, she knows how important it is to keep a child's best interests top of mind.

EMPLOYMENT

Prior to joining Kogut & Wilson, Cailee worked as a senior associate at a Chicago-based family law boutique concentrated in family and adoption services.

While pursuing her J.D., Cailee gained valuable experience interning with at the Department of Children and Family Services, the Domestic Violence Legal Clinic, the Chicago Legal Clinic and private attorneys in the areas of adoption and guardianship wherein she provided guidance and advocacy for families.

AWARDS

Cailee has been selected to Illinois Rising Stars list by Super Lawyers since 2021. This distinction is awarded to just 2.5% of attorneys under 40 years of age in Illinois.

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

Cailee served as the Chair of the Chicago Bar Association's Adoption Law Committee from 2018-2019. Prior to this position, she served as Vice-Chair in the committee from 2017-2018.

EDUCATION

Cailee graduated from DePaul University College of Law where she also earned a Certificate in Family Law. After completing over 200 hours of volunteer work while attending law school, Cailee was awarded the Benjamin Hook Distinguished Service Award.

Cailee received her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

PUBLICATIONS & PRESENTATIONS

Cailee authored a chapter for the 2020 edition of the adoption law handbook published by the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (IICLE). In addition, she has been both a host and speaker for the Chicago Bar Association (CBA) Adoption Law Seminar.
